

CSBA

Center for Strategic and Budgetary Assessments

Bryan Clark

Senior Fellow

clark@csbaonline.org

Prior to joining CSBA in 2013, Bryan Clark was Special Assistant to the Chief of Naval Operations and Director of his Commander's Action Group, where he led development of Navy strategy and implemented new initiatives in electromagnetic spectrum operations, undersea warfare, expeditionary operations and personnel and readiness management.

Mr. Clark served in the Navy headquarters staff from 2004 to 2011, leading studies in the Assessment Division and participating in the 2006 and 2010 Quadrennial Defense Reviews. His areas of emphasis were modeling and simulation, strategic planning and institutional reform and governance. Prior to retiring from the Navy in 2007, Mr. Clark was an enlisted and officer submariner, serving in afloat and ashore submarine operational and training assignments including tours as Chief Engineer and Operations Officer at the Navy's nuclear power training unit.

He is the recipient of the Department of the Navy Superior Service Medal and the Legion of Merit.

Education

Master of Science in National Security Studies
National War College

Bachelor of Science in Chemistry and Philosophy
University of Idaho

Areas of Expertise

- Electromagnetic Warfare
- Force Planning
- Long-Term Military Competition
- Military Readiness
- Strategy Development
- Undersea Warfare